

You Have My Yes [C, 6/8]

[Worship ] by Paul Daugherty

Verse 1

C                    Dm                    Am                    F
If you're not the one leading me (the way), I don't wanna go—No, no, no
C                    Dm                    Am                    F
If you're not the voice calling me, then I don't wanna hear it—No, no, no
C                    Dm                                    Am                    F
If your presence doesn't go with me I don't wanna follow—No, no, no
C                    Dm                    Am                    F
Even if the whole world goes that way, I won't go unless you say

Pre-Chorus

C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
And if it's just you and me, than that's all I need cause we're the majority
C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
God if you're asking me for anything—My answer will always be

Chorus

C                    Am - C - F
You have my yes (Guys respond)
C                    Am - C - F
You have my yes (Girls respond)
C C/E Am - C - F
You have my yes

Verse 2

C                    Bb                    Am                    F
I don't need fame, or a high place, not runnin' that race—No, no, no
C                    Bb                                    Am                                    F
Not here by mistake, cause you know my name, you won't let me down—No, no, no
C                    Bb                                    Am                                    F
Anything this world could offer could never compare to you—No, no, no
C                    Bb                                    Am                                    F
Cause I would never trade one moment with you for anything else—No, no, no

Pre-Chorus

C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
No matter how high I could go, how far I could reach, the greener the grass
C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
And even if everyone goes, God if you're not in it, I know it won't last
C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
And if it's just you and me, than that's all I need cause we're the majority
C/E                    F                                    G                                    Am
God if you're asking me for anything—My answer will always be
